INTERRUPTION OF TRANSIT OF DAMAGED GOODS

It is agreed that goods taken out of ordinary transit upon instructions of surveyors appointed by or on behalf of Underwriters for the purpose of establishment of loss or damage, shall be held covered, subject to the original terms and conditions applying to such shipment, without payment of additional premium or advice to Underwriters, during such interruption or suspension of transit until disposed of by delivery to and acceptance by the original consignee or by sale or otherwise, provided that during such interruption or suspension the Assured complies with the surveyor's instructions.
